

Bromet School

Home School Pupil Agreement

A child's education begins at home and continues as a partnership between home and school. To provide maximum opportunities for success each of the partners should be clear about the responsibilities of the other.

The school will: -

- Be open and welcoming at all times and keep parents up to date with school activities via letters, meetings, newsletters and the school Learning Platform.
- Provide a balanced curriculum and home learning activities which stimulates and encourages our children to reach their full potential
- Give advice to parents/carers about how to help their children at home.
- Provide regular information about the curriculum and pupil progress.
- Provide a safe environment and encourage the children to take care of their surroundings and others.
- Work in partnership with parents and carers to promote positive behaviour within our children and encourage them to respect and value each other and those within the wider community
- Investigate bullying and racist allegations and to work with all parties to resolve conflicts.

Parents and carers will: -

- Support and take an interest in their child's learning journey.
- Provide a suitable environment and adult support for home learning activities.
- Support the school actively in its efforts to promote good discipline and behaviour.
- Participate, wherever possible, in activities organised by parents, staff and pupils for the ultimate benefit of all pupils in the school.
- Understand that the school has mixed aged classes and that their child may be placed in a mixed age class.
- Inform the school regularly about any changes regarding home information e.g. emergency telephone numbers, domestic situations etc.
- Ensure that pupils arrive in school uniform, punctually and are collected on time.
- Telephone the school on the first day of absence and send in an explanatory note when the child returns to school.

Pupils will: -

- Be kind, polite and considerate to everyone.
- Try their best and look for the next step in their learning journey
- Complete all home learning activities.
- Follow school and class rules and set a good example for younger classes.
